

HIGH SCHOOL ELL PROGRAM and COURSE PLACEMENT

PLANNING CHART

Notes: • Content classes leading to graduation may include short-term ELLs, long-term ELLs, and non-ELLs.
 • English credit toward graduation may be earned through ELL English and Academic English courses; see p. 3 ff.
 • ELL English courses are NOT intended to provide content for passing ELA End-of-Course (EOC) Exams.

Short-Term ELLs are new to the country or have attended U.S. schools for five years or less. Short term ELLs are typically limited English proficient in comprehension/speaking as well as in reading/writing.

Long-Term ELLs have had at least five years of formal education in the U.S., may be fluent English speakers or approach oral fluency criteria in English, but may have low academic skills. For many long term ELLs, English is the dominant language.

Short Term (ST) ELL Program

IMPORTANT: Beginning ELL courses, Multicultural Education, and ELL Literacy Skills are ONLY offered at Newcomer Centers (Incline HS, Wooster HS, Hug HS, Sparks HS). If a student qualifies for newcomer services and/or Beginning ELL, they should attend the appropriate Newcomer center.

HIGH SCHOOL ELL COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Short Term (ST) ELL Program

Beginning level

ELL Beginning English

Course Number: 7611-7612

Full Year: 0.5 English credit per semester
(Students may earn a maximum of 2 English credits from ELL English courses.)

Prerequisites: ELL assessment results
Instructor approval

This one-year course provides the fundamentals of English language structure and communication. The course addresses language skills such as commonly used vocabulary and syntax to help students understand basic conversations. Students will be expected to apply this knowledge when asking or answering questions and in oral and written assignments. Students will have the opportunity to practice oral communication in different educational and social settings. Students will read short selections and answer oral and written questions to practice basic writing skills. The vocabulary development in this course includes frequently used words in content-area classes as well as expressions and high frequency words in daily conversation.

ELL Beginning Reading/Composition

Course Number: 7621-7622

Full Year: 0.5 elective credit per semester

Prerequisite: ELL assessment results
Instructor approval

This one-year course provides intensive English instruction to develop reading and composition skills in English. This course is intended to be taken in conjunction with ELL 7611-7612. The central focus is to integrate reading and writing as important academic skills. Emphasis is placed on reading a variety of simple reading selections and to respond in writing. Different aspects of writing are presented including word order, organization, sequencing, and basic mechanics and spelling. Writing at this level will incorporate vocabulary development and will include describing, giving directions, responding to simple fiction and non-fiction reading selections, and composing simple multi-paragraph stories.

Multicultural Education

Course Number: 7651

One Semester: 0.5 credit

Prerequisites: Intended for ELL newcomers (new arrivals to the country)
Instructor approval

This course is designed for ELLs who are new arrivals to the country, and is intended to help students become aware of social customs and cultural traditions in the U.S. The course will also address specific cultural issues ELL newcomers face. A second major goal includes developing an understanding of school customs and procedures, including academic practices, to help students feel connected to the school culture. The course will also introduce students to local history, customs, and current events through video, web searches, field trips, and selected articles. Upon completion of this course, students will have an increased awareness of cultural traditions in the U.S. and in their community. They will also have learned valuable and practical knowledge that will help them feel part of the school environment and become academically successful.

ELL Intermediate English
Course Number: 7613-7614

Full Year: 0.5 English credit per semester
 (Students may earn a maximum of 2 English credits from ELL English courses)

Prerequisites: ELL assessment results
 Instructor approval

This one-year course focuses on expanding and improving basic English language skills including a variety of communication and comprehension strategies. The focus is on using more elaborate word order structures and more complex verb tenses. The expanded vocabulary will include more specific and specialized words commonly used in the content area and mainstream classes. Students will be introduced to a variety of fiction and non-fiction and will respond to questions orally as well as in writing. The course also introduces students to basic note-taking skills including summarizing main ideas. Students will be expected to participate in classroom discussions and to ask and answer questions for clarification.

ELL Intermediate Reading/Composition
Course Number: 7625-7626

Full Year: 0.5 elective credit per semester

Prerequisites: ELL assessment results
 Instructor approval

This one-year course expands the composition and reading objectives introduced at the beginning level and is intended for intermediate level ELLs who are enrolled in ELL 7613-7614. The approach is to integrate reading and writing skills as important academic skills in mainstream classes. Students will read a variety of fiction and non-fiction and will be introduced to different writing styles and writing purposes. Students will be asked to summarize essential information from text, write paragraphs using clear transitions, and practice use of different tenses, word order structures and conjunctions. Students will also be expected to use more specific and expanded vocabulary in their writing with few errors in basic spelling and mechanics..

ELL Advanced English
Course Number: 7615-7616

Full Year: 0.5 English credit per semester
 (or .5 elective credit per semester if a student has accumulated the maximum 2 English credits from previous ELL English classes. Students may earn a maximum of 2 English credits from ELL English courses.)

Prerequisites: ELL assessment results
 Instructor approval
 Concurrent enrollment in a mainstream English class strongly recommended

The focus of this course is to expand English language skills in all areas and to apply previous knowledge to oral and written communication. Students will be required to read a variety of literary selections as well as content-area related material. The course emphasizes more advanced writing and composition and includes writing for different purposes and audience. Students will write responses to literature as well as produce essays that are well organized and have a clear topic and supporting details. Students will apply complex sentence structures and rules of grammar and mechanics with few significant errors. Participation in group discussions and oral presentations are also an important aspect of this course. Students will be expected to use specific and appropriate vocabulary when communicating ideas in various contexts and settings.

ELL Literacy Skills

Course Number: 7623-7624

Full Year or semester: 0.5 elective credit per semester

Prerequisites: ELL assessment results

Instructor approval

May be repeated for a second year

May be taken concurrently with ELL Beginning English and ELL Beginning Reading/Composition. This course is intended for incoming ELLs who have low academic skills in the native language because of interrupted education in their home country. The course offers extra support for beginning students with low or intermediate level literacy skills in the native language. The focus is to provide additional opportunities for students to increase academic skills and expand basic content area vocabulary. Students will review and practice different aspects of writing including word order, mechanics and spelling, organization, and paragraph development. Reading selections and vocabulary development will include content-related topics to help expand students' reading comprehension and academic knowledge.

Support

ELL Mainstream Support

Course Number: 7661-7662

Full Year: 0.5 elective credit per semester

Prerequisites: Enrollment in two or more ACADEMIC mainstream classes

Instructor approval

May be repeated as needed

ELL mainstream support provides assistance to ELLs enrolled in two or more academic mainstream classes. The course offers tutoring or additional support to address specific language and content difficulties for ELLs enrolled in academic classes. Specific objectives for this course will vary based on students' individual linguistic needs, academic skills, and mainstream course content. The ELL teacher will assist/tutor students on an as-needed basis to facilitate academic success. Students will be required to bring assignments and texts from their mainstream classes and will be expected to use class time effectively.

ELL Peer Tutor

Course Number: 7655-7656-7657

Full Year or Semester: 0.5 elective credit per semester

Prerequisites: ELL and mainstream instructor approval

Tutor must have good academic standing

This course is intended for non-ELLs who are interested in tutoring English language learners. However, ELLs on monitoring status and with good academic standing may also apply for this course. Peer tutors must have the skills necessary for assisting ELLs with academic content. Each peer tutor will be assigned to one or more ELLs, and will provide language and content assistance to facilitate academic success. The course also aims to increase cultural awareness and to facilitate ELL participation in class and school activities. Peer tutoring may be implemented in a variety of ways, and may include direct assistance in the mainstream academic classroom, after-school tutoring, or help with academic assignments. The mainstream teacher and the ELL teacher will guide the ELL peer tutor in identifying tutoring objectives. Student evaluation and grade assignment for this class will be determined by the mainstream and/or ELL teacher based on the contributions the tutor made towards assisting the ELL in academic classes.

Summer School: TBD

Long Term (LT) ELL Program

ELL Academic English 1 High School Course Number: 7619-7620

Full Year: 0.5 English credit per semester

*Students may earn a maximum of 2 English credits from ELL English courses which may include up to one English credit from either ELL Academic English 1 or ELL Academic English 2.

Prerequisite: Must meet selection/enrollment criteria
Instructor approval

The focus of this course is to expand academic language development in oral and written communication. Students will read and explore a variety of expository and narrative texts and respond orally and in writing. Students are expected to acquire and apply complex grammatical structures, word meanings and word formation in different academic contexts, explicit and implicit language use, use of abstract concepts and figurative expressions, and specific academic learning skills. While the overall goal for the course is similar for all schools, detailed objectives may vary, depending on specific linguistic characteristics of students enrolled in the course. To plan and implement effective instruction for this course, the instructor must be able to interpret available assessment data, identify academic language skills, adapt instruction, provide instructive feedback, and monitor progress. The course requires an ESL endorsed instructor preferably trained in SIOP. Student must be concurrently enrolled in a grade level English course - this course is not designed to supplant the student's grade level English requirements OR provide content preparation for High School End of Course Exams.
