The Nevada Department of Education (NDE) disseminated requests to interested parties for the purpose of soliciting nominations for current vacancies on the SEAC. Nominees have been recommended to serve based upon the information included in the Application for Advisory Groups, Biographical/Background Information that the nominee submits to the Department. In addition the following criteria is also taken into consideration: 1) current service in the position for which nomination is received, e.g., parent of a child with disability must have a child ages 0-26 in special education; individual with disabilities must have a disability, etc.; 2) experience and knowledge in the field of special education; 3) membership in and/or representation of a constituent group; and 4) geographical representation of the state. This information has been reviewed by the NDE staff. The following summarizes the nominations received and the NDE staff recommendations for appointments:

APPOINTMENTS TO THE SPECIAL EDUCATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Parents of Children with Disabilities and/or Individuals with Disabilities – one nomination was received to fill three vacancies. The NDE does not recommend appointment of this applicant; she does not meet the criteria set forth in the IDEA and by the SBE.

Special Education Administrator - South - one nomination was received to fill one vacancy. The NDE recommends the appointment of Carlos Morales. Mr. Morales meets the criteria set forth in the IDEA and by the SBE. This appointment will fill a new three-year term from July 1, 2016 and will conclude June 30, 2019.

Vacancies remain for the following area: Parents of Children with Disabilities and/or Individuals with Disabilities (3), Special Education Administrator - Rural (1), and State Juvenile/Adult Corrections (1). The NDE will continue to seek nominations for representatives in this vacant area.
