MEMORANDUM

TO: School District Homeschool Administrators

FROM: Keith W. Rheault, Superintendent of Public Instruction
Nevada Department of Education

SUBJECT: Current Homeschool Responsibilities After SB 404

Homeschool law in Nevada has changed significantly with the passage of SB 404 during the 2007 legislative session. On July 1, 2007, the new law became effective. The law stipulates that regulations in NAC 392.011 through 392.065 are annulled.

There are several new responsibilities for local school districts; the requirements under the old regulations no longer apply. The information enclosed outlines the responsibilities of school districts at the local level and provides appropriate responses to questions when applicable. This memo replaces the June 16, 2006, memo and attachments.

A separate section is dedicated to each major area; sample documents are also attached. The electronic version of this memo is available on the Nevada Department of Education's website and includes links to the various references. Since legal enumeration of SB 404 has not occurred yet, references will be provided to the applicable SB 404 section. SB 404 can be found at http://www.leg.state.nv.us/74th/Bills/SB/SB404_EN.pdf.

At the Federal level, the IDEA law and regulations continue to pertain to homeschool students in Nevada in the same manner that they apply to private school students when they attend a public school, in accordance with Nevada law. Nevada regulations that help define how to implement IDEA for homeschool students at the local level will be forthcoming.

If you have any questions or suggestions to improve the information provided, please address them to Bill Arensdorf at 775-687-9160 and Orval Nutting at 775-687-9238.

Notice of Intent to Homeschool, Withdrawal from Public School, and General Information

- 1) Compulsory attendance of a child in a public school must be excused if the parent chooses to provide education to the child and files a notice of intent to homeschool with the Superintendent of Schools of the school district where the child lives. SB404 no longer requires satisfactory written evidence that the child is receiving equivalent instruction be presented to the board of trustees of a local school district. Rather, requirements for information contained in the notice are now established in law and need only be acknowledged by the Superintendent of Schools where the notice is filed.
SB404 Sec 7 (1b), Sec 5(7)
- 2) The purpose of the notice is to inform the school district that the child is exempt from compulsory attendance. A separate notice of intent to homeschool must be submitted for each homeschooled child.
SB404 Sec 5 (1)&(3), Sec 7 (1b)
- 3) A notice of intent to homeschool must be filed by all Nevada homeschool parents for the upcoming 2007-08 school year, even if they filed last year under the old regulations. In consecutive succeeding years, the notice of intent does not need to be re-filed unless the name or address of the parent or child changes, in which case a new notice must be filed by the parent within 30 days. The reason that all homeschool parents must re-file this year is that the new notice has fields that were not required under the old regulations. The signed declaration assuming full responsibility for the child's education has also changed.
SB404 Sec 5 (1)&(2)&(4)
- 4) SB404 allows parents to submit any notice of intent to homeschool that meets the prescribed requirements in SB404 Sec 5 (5). The Department is required to develop a standard form which does not require any information or assurances beyond the SB404 requirements of Sec 5 (5). The local district shall make only the Department form available to parents, and shall not require or request any additional information or assurances from the parent who files the notice. The Department form, or any other notice of intent to homeschool that meets the requirements of Sec 5 (5), shall be accepted.
SB404 Sec 5 (1)&(6), Sec 5.5 (1)
- 5) The parent must file a notice of intent to homeschool before beginning to homeschool the child, or not later than 10 days after the child has been formally withdrawn from the public school system, or not later than 30 days after establishing residency in Nevada. The parent of any child being homeschooled in Nevada must file a notice of intent to homeschool with the local district.
SB404 Sec 5 (2), Sec 7 (1)
- 6) The parent must submit a notice of intent to homeschool by mail or in person to the office of the Superintendent of Schools. There is no requirement for the parent to go

- 7) A notice of intent to homeschool must include “an educational plan of instruction for the child in the subject areas of English, including reading, composition and writing, mathematics, science and social studies, including history, geography, economics and government, as appropriate for the age and level of skill of the child as determined by the parent.” SB404 does not specify the contents of the educational plan beyond subject listings. Traditionally an educational plan has consisted of either educational goals (a description of the anticipated kind of instruction, by subject) or a list of instructional materials to be used (items used for instruction including, without limitation, books, library materials, software or a correspondence program) for the upcoming school year. The parent is not required to ensure that each subject area is taught each year. The educational plan must not be used in any manner as a basis for denial of a notice of intent to homeschool if it includes the above requirements. Since the educational plan is part of the notice of intent to homeschool, it must be submitted even if the notice is being submitted just to show an address change.
SB404 Sec 5 (5d)&(12)
- 8) The district shall provide a written acknowledgement to the parent who files a notice of intent to homeschool. The acknowledgment shall clearly indicate that the parent has provided notification required by law and that the child is being homeschooled. The acknowledgement shall be deemed proof of compliance with Nevada’s compulsory school attendance law, and the district shall retain a written or electronic copy of the acknowledgement for not less than 15 years. There is no requirement in SB404 for the local school district to retain the notice of intent to homeschool itself for any specified period of time.
SB404 Sec 5 (7), Sec 6
- 9) A written request for a copy of records relating to a homeschooled child, or any information contained therein, must be processed not later than 5 days after receiving the request. Records may only be released to a person or entity if required by a specific statute, or upon suitable proof of identity of the parent (or the child if 18 or over) that is making the request.
SB404 Sec 5 (8)
- 10) The school district shall prohibit the release of any information, including directory information, if the parent has signed the optional statement on the notice of intent to homeschool, unless the parent rescinds the privacy statement at a later date.
SB404 Sec5 (5f)
- 11) No regulation or policy of the State Board, any school district, or any other governmental entity may infringe upon the right of a parent to educate his child based

- 12) A school or organization shall not discriminate in any manner against a child who is or was homeschooled.
SB404 Sec 5 (10)
- 13) A district shall maintain on its internet website all pertinent information concerning exams available to all children within the district, including dates and times and contact information. Exam information posted must include the high school proficiency exam, the SAT, and the PSAT/NMSQT. Each school district shall ensure that the homeschooled children who reside in the school district have adequate notice of the availability of information concerning such examinations on the district's internet website. SB404 Sec 4, Sec 5 (11)
- 14) Districts shall allow homeschooled children to take the state High School Proficiency Exam. Homeschooled children are eligible for the Millennium Scholarship. Districts shall also allow homeschooled children to take any college entrance exams offered in the State, including the SAT, and ACT and the PSAT/NMSQT Exam. Homeschooled children are eligible for the National Merit Scholarship. Tests shall be administered in the manner intended by the person or entity that created the examination, and irregularities are to be reported in accordance with NRS 389.600 – 389.648 SB404 Sec 5 (11), NRS 396.930 (3)
- 15) A child who has been expelled from a public school may be allowed to enroll in a public school program pursuant to NRS 392.466 and 392.4675, which includes alternative schools, independent study and distance education. The parents also have the option to homeschool the child or send the child to a private school. It also does “not prohibit a pupil who is suspended or expelled from enrolling in a charter school that is designed exclusively for the enrollment of pupils with disciplinary problems if he is accepted for enrollment by the charter school pursuant to NRS 386.580.”

Participation in Classes, Extracurricular Activities/Events/Sports, and Interscholastic Activities/Events/Sports

1) Classes

- a) A request to attend public school classes within the district that the child resides must be authorized if there is space available and if the child is qualified to participate. SB404 Sec 7 (3)
- b) A Notice of Intent of a Homeschooled Child to Participate in Programs and Activities must be filed for each year of participation. SB404 Sec 2 (5c), Sec 5.5 (3)

- c) The child may participate at any public school within the school district. NRS 392.070 (3)
- d) The child may not participate in a Nevada program of distance education governed by NRS 388.820 to 388.874. SB404 Sec 3 (3)
- e) The child may participate in a distance education program from a private institution or any out-of-state institution.
- f) A “class” is a course which is offered in the school as part of the core or elective curriculum.
- g) Every effort should be made by the school or school district to determine if space is available within the first few days of the semester.
- h) The school is not required to provide transportation for the child to attend the class. NRS 392.070 (3)
- i) The parent may be required to show a birth certificate or other documentation sufficient to establish the identity of the child. SB404 Sec 7 (8b)
- j) Approval for the pupil to participate may be revoked if the Board of Trustees or the public school determines that the pupil has failed to comply with the applicable laws, rules or regulations. NRS 392.070 (4)
- k) The child is not restricted to a single class or activity per semester. The Nevada Department of Education will reimburse the district or a charter school for up to a half day’s worth of class credits. SB404 Sec 7 (3), NRS 392.070 (3), NRS 387.123, NRS 387.1233 (8)
- l) The child is not enrolled in the school, but fully participates in the class, including all exams and the final exam, and a grade for the class. Should the child enroll in the school in the future, the credits earned are part of the child’s academic record.
- m) All credits earned by the child in a public high school, and the cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) of those grades, must meet the minimum GPA requirement based on the homeschooled student’s year of graduation from high school for application to the State of Nevada Millennium Scholarship program.
- n) The school should count these students for apportionment purposes. The calculation of basic support for the district should include these students in accordance with the law. NRS 387.123, NRS 387.1233 (8)

- o) A charter school shall authorize a homeschooled child to participate in a class that is not otherwise available to the child if space is available and if the child is qualified to participate. The law does not prevent a child from participating in a class that might be otherwise available to the child. The parent may be required to show a birth certificate or other documentation sufficient to establish the identity of the child. The parent must file with the district for the current year a notice of intent of a homeschooled child to participate in programs and activities. The charter school should count these students for apportionment purposes. The calculation of basic support for the district should include these students in accordance with the law. The child is not restricted to charter schools within his district. He may not participate in distance education classes through the charter school. NRS 386.580 (5), SB404 Sec 2 (5c)&(7), NRS 387.123, NRS387.1233 (8), AB334 Sec 5

2) Extracurricular Activities K-12 grades

(See #3 and #4 for interscholastic activities and events, including sports)

- a) A request to participate in an extracurricular activity, excluding sports, within the district that the child resides must be authorized if there is space available and if the child is qualified to participate. NRS 392.070 (3)
- b) A Notice of Intent of a Homeschooled Child to Participate in Programs and Activities must be filed for each year of participation SB404 Sec 2 (5c), Sec 5.5 (3)
- c) The parent may be required to show a birth certificate or other documentation sufficient to establish the identity of the child. SB404 Sec 7 (8b)
- d) The homeschool child is not restricted to his zoned school to participate in an extracurricular activity (excluding sports).
- e) An extracurricular activity is an activity that is not curricular or curricular-associated. Examples would be school dances, FFA, Chess Club, Spelling Bee, Science Club, etc. Curricular-associated activities examples would be class picnics and graduation ceremonies, and would require permission on an individual basis from the principal or district.
- f) The school is not required to provide transportation for the child to attend the activity.
- g) Approval for the pupil to participate may be revoked if the Board of Trustees or if the public school determines that the pupil has failed to comply with the applicable laws, rules or regulations.
- h) The child is not restricted to a single class or activity per semester. SB404 Sec 7 (3), NRS 392.070 (3)

3) Interscholastic Activities and Events K-8 grades, and any Interscholastic Activities and Events for 9-12 grades that are NOT governed by the NIAA (the NIAA governs high school sports)

- a) A homeschooled child must be allowed to participate in interscholastic activities and events, including sports. NRS 392.070 (5)
- b) A Notice of Intent of a Homeschooled Child to Participate in Programs and Activities must be filed for each year of participation SB404 Sec 2 (5c), Sec 7 (5)
- c) The parent shall be required to show a birth certificate or other documentation sufficient to establish the identity of the child. SB404 Sec 7 (8c)
- d) The homeschooled child is restricted to his zoned school to participate in interscholastic activities and events, just the same as a public school child. The only exception is an existing transfer rule that applies to the homeschooled child in the same manner as it does for a public school child. NRS 392.070 (5)
- e) The homeschooled child may also participate as part of a private school that has interscholastic activities and events, if the private school allows such participation. The requirements for participation by the homeschooled child at the private school are set by the private school, including but not limited to fees, academic accountability, and citizenship. The private school, in turn, must abide by any league or association rules, but neither the district nor a public school may prescribe any regulations, rules, policies, procedures or requirements governing the eligibility or participation of the homeschooled child that are more restrictive than the provisions governing the eligibility and participation of pupils enrolled in public schools. NRS 392.070 (5)&(6)
- f) There is no “space available” clause in the law, so for activities and sports that have tryouts where children are “cut”, the homeschooled child must be allowed to try-out just the same as any other child. NRS 392.070 (5)
- g) The rules and regulations that apply to pupils enrolled in public schools participating in interscholastic activities and events apply in the same manner to homeschooled children. NRS 392.070 (5)
- h) Neither the school district nor a public school may prescribe any regulations, rules, policies, procedures or requirements governing the eligibility or participation of the homeschooled child that are more restrictive than the provisions governing the eligibility and participation of pupils enrolled in public schools. NRS 392.070 (6b)
- i) The parent is the legal teacher of the homeschooled child. Any academic progress or citizenship reports that are required for public school children will be provided solely by the parent-teacher, with no further certification or oversight allowed in accordance with NRS 392.070 (5). The district or school is not authorized to impose or monitor any of the various methods used to educate the child, such as correspondence courses or licensed teacher or the parent teaching using unaccredited texts. Periodic signed statements by the parent-teacher are sufficient for purposes of academic and/or citizenship eligibility. NRS 392.070 (5)&(6)

- j) Inquiries by homeschool parents or students about participating in an interscholastic activity or event, including sports, are to be addressed in the same manner as inquiries by public school students or their parents. This may entail referring the person to the program director, or athletic director or coach, to obtain practice schedules, try-out dates and times, and any other pertinent information. NRS 392.070 (6b)

4) Interscholastic Activities and Events 9-12 grades that are governed by the NIAA (Nevada Interscholastic Activities Association)

(NRS 386.420-470, NAC 386.793, NAC 386.802-807)

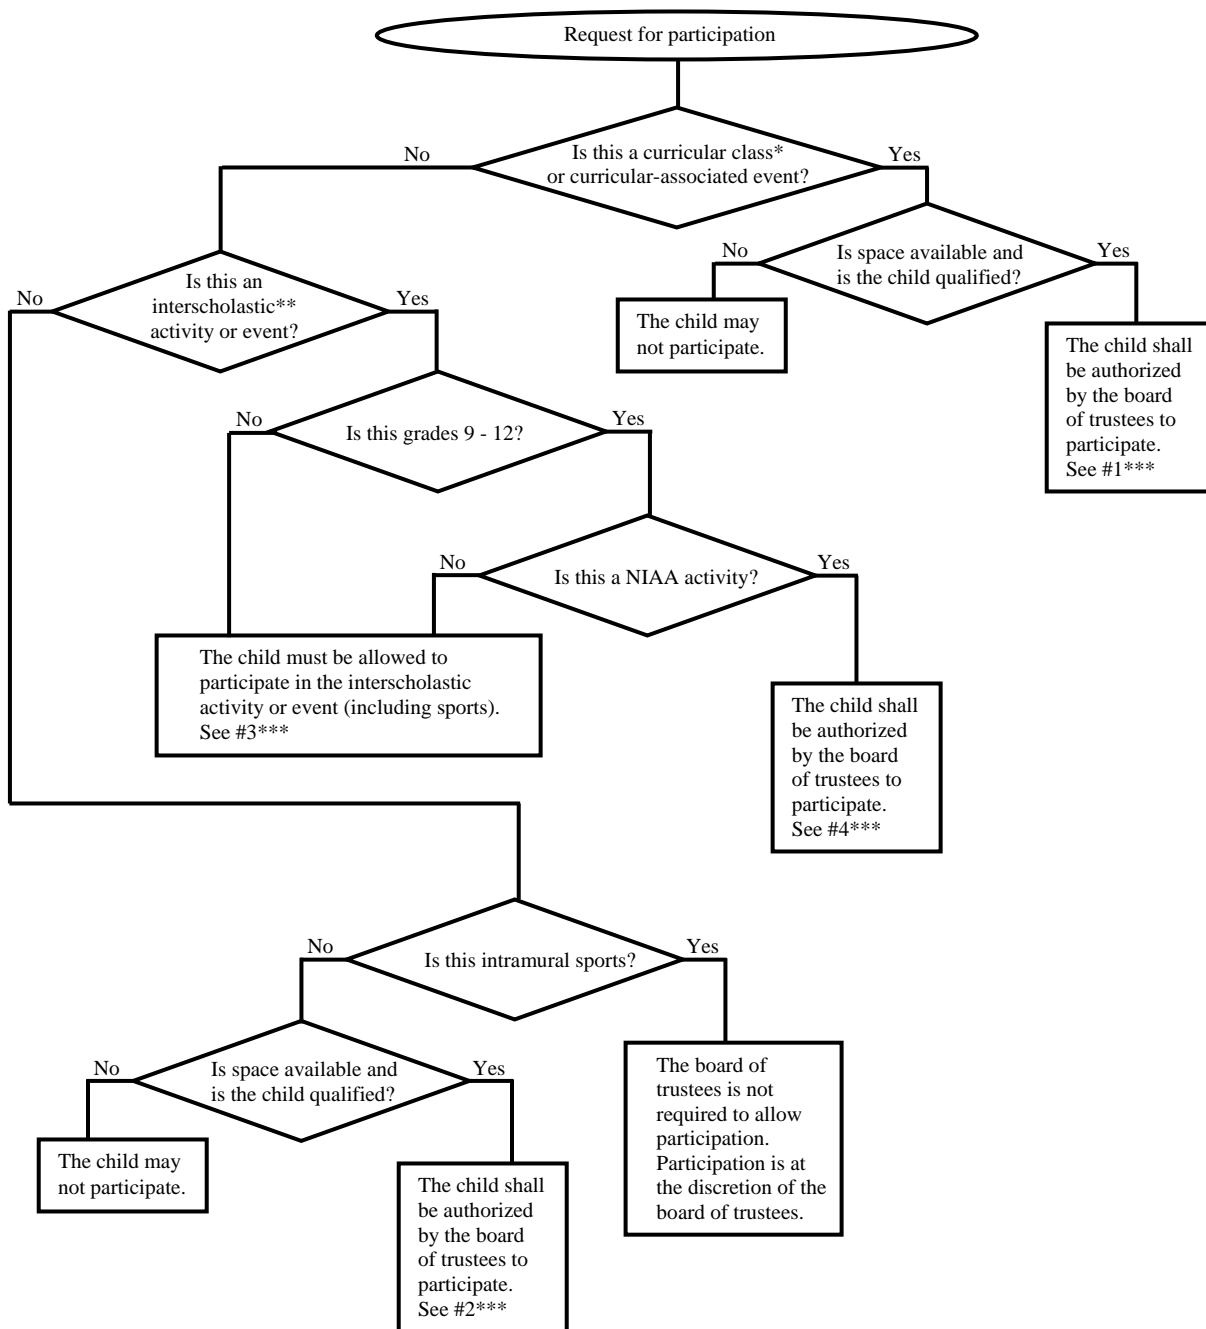

NIAA regulations <http://www.leg.state.nv.us/NAC/CHAPTERS.HTML>)

- a) A homeschooled child must be allowed to participate in interscholastic activities and events, including sports, which are governed by the NIAA. NRS392.070 (3), NRS 386.462 (1)
- b) A Notice of Intent of a Homeschooled Child to Participate in Programs and Activities must be filed for each year of participation Sec (1), Sec 1.5 (1), Sec 2 (5c)
- c) The parent shall be required to show a birth certificate or other documentation sufficient to establish the identity of the child. SB404 Sec 7 (8c)
- d) The homeschooled child is bound by the same NIAA regulations that a public school child is regarding which public school team he/she plays for. If a child is in a public school and on a team, and the parent elects to homeschool the child, the child may stay on the team without serving mandatory transfer ineligibility periods, if the child is in good academic standing when he/she withdrew from the public school. If the child was not in good academic standing upon withdrawal, NIAA regulations specify the academic ineligibility periods. NRS 386.462 (2)
- e) The homeschooled child may also participate in athletics at a private school with the acceptance of the private school. The private school may also assess a consistent fee for this participation and that fee must be reported to the NIAA. NIAA regulations apply regarding any transfer rules if the child previously participated for another NIAA team. NAC 386.793 (5)
- f) There is no “space available” clause in the law, so for activities and sports that have try-outs where children are “cut”, the homeschooled child must be allowed to try-out just the same as any other child. NRS 386.462

- g) The rules and regulations that apply to pupils enrolled in public schools participating in NIAA activities and events apply in the same manner to homeschooled children. NRS386.462 (2)
- h) A school district, public school or private school may not prescribe any regulations, rules, policies, procedures or requirements governing the eligibility or participation of the homeschooled child that are more restrictive than the provisions governing the eligibility and participation prescribed by the NIAA pursuant to NRS 386.430. NRS 386.464
- i) A parent of a homeschooled child who has a notice of intent to homeschool filed with the district shall be deemed to be the teacher of the homeschooled child for all matters relating to participation by the homeschooled child in a sanctioned sport. The district or school is not authorized to impose or monitor any of the various methods used to educate the child, such as correspondence courses or licensed teacher or the parent teaching using unaccredited texts. Periodic signed statements by the parent-teacher are sufficient for purposes of academic and/or citizenship eligibility. NAC 386.793 (1), NAC 386.810, NRS 386.462, NRS 386.464
- j) If a homeschooled child or the parents notify the school that he/she wishes to participate in a NIAA sanctioned sport, the school shall provide to the parent a statement setting forth the requirements for academic eligibility, all schedules and requirements of the school relating to eligibility for participation, and the name and telephone number of the contact person in the athletic department who monitors academic eligibility. NAC 386.793 (2), NRS 386.462, NRS 386.464

b) The Course is equivalent to a course offered in a regular program in the school district.

h) The provisions of f) apply to correspondence courses where the credit is issued by the educational institution, not the parent. In cases where curriculum published by an educational institution was used, but the course was provided by the parent and not the institution, the provisions of d) and e) apply.

i) Requirements for graduation for pupils transferring to a Nevada high school. (NAC 389.682)

1) A pupil, who transfers to a Nevada high school from another school, whether located inside or outside this State, shall abide by the requirements for graduation of the receiving school district unless he is in the 12th grade and the requirements of that district would not allow him to graduate by the end of the 12th grade.

2) Each school district shall develop a policy and procedure to make an allowance or a pupil in the latter circumstances so that he may graduate from:

a) The receiving school under its requirements or the minimum requirements of the State Board of Education; or

b) His school of origin if that school is willing to issue the diploma.
