

2016 National Family & Community Engagement Conference

PITTSBURGH, PA
JUNE 19 -JUNE 22, 2016

ParentCamp

Sunday, June 19

ParentCamp is a hybrid “un-conference” opportunity for parents and teachers to come together and rely on the expertise and perspectives of everyone in the room, not just the main presenter in a typical stand and deliver conference.

Topics:

Barriers ● Family Friendly Schools ● Engaging African American Families ● Changing Mindsets

Homelessness Family Engagement ● Funding Opportunities ● ELL/SPED ● Changing Staff Behavior

Challenging Behavior ● Early Childhood (Birth – 5) ● Communication in the 21st Century ● Engaging Dads

Parent Advocacy at the Legislative Level ● Parent Engagement Expectations ● Trauma Informed Teaching

Empowering Parents to Engage Other Parents ● Sustaining Engagement

Community Schools

Monday, June 20

Presentation and Panel Discussion

“...a place and set of partnerships connecting school, family, and community. A community school is distinguished by an integrated focus on academics, youth development, family support, health and social services, and community development.”

Day 1

Monday, June 20

ESSA Opportunities for Revitalizing Family Engagement

Sengue Little Poole Teen Bloc – “Hope Dealers”

City of Hartford – Family Civic Initiative

Day 2

Tuesday, June 21

Teacher Capacity Building for Meaningful Family Partnerships

Family Engagement and Equity (Lunch Keynote)

Supporting LEAs in Family Engagement Practices

Leadership Matters: The Role of School Principals in Effective Family-School Partnerships

Sue Swenson (Lunch Speaker)

Elev8 Baltimore

Social Media Role in Parent Engagement

Day 3

Wednesday, June 22

How States Promote Equity in Education through Family Engagement

Family and School Together

Closing Speakers

State Leaders In-Person Meeting

Wednesday, June 22 – Thursday, June 23

Conference Highlights

State Initiatives & Resources

Stakeholder Groups (ESSA)

Strengthening Community of Practice

ESSA and Meaningful Family Engagement

2017 National FCE Conference

June 22-24, 2017

San Francisco, CA