

Application for Appointment to State Public Charter School Authority Board

AB 78 (2019) requires the State Board of Education to nominate two (2) members to the State Public Charter School Authority by October 1, 2019.

The Department of Education will post an application on their website and screen applicants for appointment by the State Board of Education. Candidate applications will be shared with the State Board of Education at the August 29, 2019 meeting.

The below is a production copy of the State Public Charter School Authority (SPCSA) Board appointment application which includes questions from the "Application for Appointment to a Position of Trust" on the Governor's website. With State Board of Education approval, the application will open for applicants on Thursday, July 18, 2019 and close on Tuesday, August 13, 2019.
