Four-Point Rating Scale

Level 4. The administrator is a highly effective leader within the school, fully supporting the learning of all staff and students, while cultivating a shared vision and high expectations embedded within a fully welcoming, collaborative school environment. The administrator uses a variety of communication processes to engage a broad range of stakeholders while consistently modeling self-reflection and the pursuit of fully aligned, varying professional learning opportunities.

Level 3. The administrator is generally an effective leader within the school, sufficiently supporting staff and students while creating a vision and appropriate expectations embedded within a welcoming, collaborative school environment. The administrator communicates with and engages stakeholders while modeling self-reflection and the pursuit of aligned professional learning opportunities.

Level 2. The administrator demonstrates inadequate leadership within the school. The administrator attempts to support staff and students, but his or her vision and expectations, and attempts to create a welcoming, collaborative school environment are of inconsistent quality or are inappropriate for most staff and students. The administrator minimally communicates with or engages a limited range of stakeholders and rarely models self-reflection or the pursuit of appropriate professional learning opportunities.

Level 1. The administrator demonstrates little or no attempt to support staff and students, create a vision and appropriate expectations, or cultivate a welcoming school environment, or attempts to do so are unsuccessful. The administrator does not actively communicate with or engage stakeholders and refuses to participate in appropriate professional learning responsibilities.
