<td>• HCSD continues its efforts to increase Family Engagement participation and opportunities.</td>
<td>• Continue to build the vital relationship between school and family.</td>
<td>• HCSD will increase electronic communication with families through the HCSD website. While a specific page of the HCSD website is designed to provide information to parents, HCSD will make this more widely known to our stakeholders.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• The HCSD Learning Strategists have made a concerted effort to increase the amount of information made available to parents through electronic means. As a result, pertinent information appears periodically on the HCSD website as well as the HCSD Facebook page. Because so many parents have access to this type of information, we feel we are reaching more parents than previously.</td>
<td>• Develop further means of communication through technology, combine family events with parent-education opportunities, and provide parents with greater opportunities to view and learn from student data.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• This year all families with students aged k-3 received “Time for Kids” magazines. Monthly magazines were sent home with students to provide reading material in the home. We hope to continue this practice to increase reading material availability to our families.</td>
<td>• Continue to develop parent panels as a further means of collaborating with parents.</td>
<td>• HCSD will increase the number of parent contacts by pairing parent education opportunities with school events already occurring, such as Donuts for Dads and Family Fun Night. A simple information booth set up at these events will help us reach parents with important literacy information.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• HCSD conducted a five-day kindergarten registration event this year. The HCSD Family engagement Coordinator attended all five days, providing parents of kindergarten students with information on reading at home, health habits, school attendance, and the importance of holding high expectations for their children.</td>
<td>• HCSD will provide parent workshops wherein parents will be able to view student achievement data and learn how to interpret data to support student learning. Parents of students noticed under Nevada Legislation RBG3 will receive special invitation to such events.</td>

| - Building partnerships with outside agencies to provide family engagement classes. This was accomplished through grant funding through the Pre-K development grant that partners with Children’s Cabinet to provide parenting classes in the schools and additional wrap-around services to families of Pre-K children. The other partnership is with the Nye Communities Coalition that provides funding for the NCSD to hire a parenting instructor that provides family engagement classes in English and Spanish. | - The district is piloting a Parent Data Site Representative at a 1003(a) school. This person will be tasked with participating in school professional development based on the use of data to drive instruction and assist students individually. The Parent Data Site Representative will provide information to the parents of underperforming students to assist them in understanding what the data means currently and for their child’s future. He/She will work with parents to provide them with skills to help them help their students at home. | - Enhance and improve stakeholder attitudes and behaviors to provide an engaging, safe, respectful, and positive learning environment to promote increased learning for all stakeholders.
- Measurable Objective: Increase student attendance rate from 94.2 to 95; teacher attendance rate (2016-17 establish baseline: sick leave, not professional development or school business), reduce bus and school referrals (2016-17 establish baseline), reduce tardies (2016-17 establish baseline), reduce drop outs from 9.8% to 8%, increase percentage of guardians participating in Parent-Teacher conferences. |
| - NCSD is trying to find other ways to engage parents to gain meaningful knowledge on how to assist their children with academic success. | - Review of the School Improvement Plan to beef up family engagement in the schools is a continued priority. | - Increase stakeholder engagement in student learning. |
| - The addition of the Social Workers in Schools Program has provided parent the opportunity to work with school personnel to help them remove barriers and obstacles to learning. Families now have a social/emotional contact at their child’s school that can help them with many needs. | - The Pre-K program send out a Parent Engagement Survey which results are then used for quality improvement of the program. | - Promote and expand programs and activities that engage stakeholders in the educational process, such as Career & Technical Education, J.A.G., Gear-Up, R.O.T.C., School Clubs & Organizations. |
| - The Instructional Coaches in the district have been tasked this year with planning and delivering parent engagement events focusing on reading. | | |

<td>• The number of teachers and schools participating in the Parent Teacher Home Visit Project grew from 24 schools to 33 schools with the number of staff participating increasing to more than 500.</td>
<td>• More targeted outreach and support for families that are not currently using IC regularly. Outreach and support will be tied to kids who are most at-risk for dropping out or falling behind on the path to graduation.</td>
<td>• The following goals are dependent on final decisions regarding funding, particularly funding through the Nevada KIDS grant as well as allocations for Title I and Title II funding.</td>
<tr>
<td>Parent University refined its partnerships with key departments. Parent U and the Social and Emotional Learning Department worked together to invite families to the already existing SEL Mini-Conferences for staff. Staff and families learned about SEL side by side in a professional learning setting. FSP also worked with SEL to build modules for classes on the 5 SEL competencies. These modules were modeled at the SEL Mini-Conferences for staff and families and made available for staff to take back to their school to work with their own families.</td>
<td>• Improved teacher tools for outreach on early literacy for families. Chunking Striving Readers tip sheets and videos into smaller more digestable chunks and creating easy to use teacher templates to push this information out to families.</td>
<td>• 8 elementary schools will be supported with Academic Parent Teacher Teams. 50% of households will be reached at each school as a baseline target, with targets set for growth after the first team meeting. 95% of the families will agree or strongly agree that APTT built their capacity to support learning at home.</td>

<tr>
<td>Our connection and support to the Nevada KIDS law and grant strengthened our professional learning for teachers on family engagement as part of the district’s “Teal Tuesdays” where Learning Strategists participated in monthly professional learning tied to the grant and the law. A representative from every elementary school in WCSD received strategies to take back to their school to support family engagement and early literacy. These strategies included: sharing data with families, having honest conversations about progress and modeling literacy tips for home learning tied to the tip sheets developed through the prior Striving Readers grant.</td>
<td>• Transition to Kindergarten practices will improve by welcoming families in a consistent way, providing a take home sheet during assessment week with the Brigance assessment and hosting a transition event where families have the chance to meet with each other and build relationships before the first day of school.</td>
<td>• Families of high school students who are identified as “high risk” or “moderate risk” on the Early Warning Index at 9 high schools will be provided with academic supports by Family Graduation Advocates. 73% of the families identified on the targeted support list will be reached.</td>

<td>The district is continuing to improve its data collection on family engagement and tie it to district systems. Tabs on APTT, Parent U and PTHVP were built in Infinite Campus as well as a database for exit surveys. Both sets of data are then tied to easily accessible and readable reports in our district warehouse, BIG. We also expanded the use of reports to include a school site report on the number of parent log-ins in IC tied to the district’s Early Warning Index. This report will be released to schools next school year and will help schools to positively monitor and outreach to families who are not using IC regularly as a monitoring tool.</td>

Beacon Academy

Strengths

- All students and their families are required to attend an academic consultation prior to enrollment. During the consultation, students and families share their academic history in order to create a four-year graduation plan, plan of study, or course schedule, and a student success plan. The students and their guardians are an integral part of the student’s success and are encouraged to adhere to the success plan which includes follow-up meetings each quarter.

Areas for Improvement

- Although BANV holds school events for students and their families, had a 50% increase in attendance and participation from the last school year to this year, there still is a low participation rate. It is essential to continue to gain the support, trust, and partnership of the parents and/or guardians of our student population.

Social workers, teachers, counselors, and the family engagement facilitator will contact students and their families weekly, to improve two-way communication between the school and home.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• To improve family engagement, BANV employs an academic counselor, bi-lingual school social worker, and intends to hire a College and Career Advisor who will work collaboratively in engaging students and their families during the 2017-18 school year.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Discuss and develop graduation plans with students at-risk of dropping out of school, to ensure that both the student and their families understand graduation requirements, a realistic timeline, and other educational options.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Improve communication between parents/families and school staff through Infinite Campus communication tools and Google applications.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Develop and implement effective family involvement strategies and activities to empower students and their families.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Recruit of partners to become part of the school’s family involvement program.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>

Elko Institute for Academic Achievement

Strengths

| EIAA provided monthly parent nights during the 2016-17 school year. These events were planned with intentionality and were well attended. |
| EIAA welcomed parents into our school by planning parent/teacher conferences before the first day of school and at least two other conferences throughout the school year with more sessions planned as needed. |
| EIAA staff (both teachers and administration) attended every PTSO meeting and assisted in planning and carrying out all events. Events included a school talent show, food drive during the holiday, field day, and numerous other events throughout the school year that were well attended. |
| EIAA administration partnered with staff and parents to offer a myriad of new extra-curricular activities both during and after school hours. Science, Technology, Art, Games and Lego/Robotics clubs were all offered this year. The Science club went to a museum in Reno and spent the night there with tremendous parent support necessary to make that trip possible. Additionally our Lego/Robotics club attended their second competition in this year qualifying for the state competition with parent support making both of those trips possibilities as well. |

Areas for Improvement

| Moving into the 2017-2018 school year we are going to send out a parent survey asking for parent requests for the content of parent nights. |
| We are going to work collectively as a school to plan and provide our students with additional real world experiences through content based field trips and guest speakers. |

2017-2018 Goals

| Schedule and hold parent/teacher conferences before school starts and two additional throughout the year. |
| Express and openly communicate that parents are welcome and encouraged to participate within our school. |
| Create, disperse, collect and use parent engagement surveys. |
| EIAA teachers will use completed parent surveys to schedule parent volunteers in the classroom at least weekly, two presentations in the classroom, and two collaborative community field trips throughout the 2017-2018 school year. |

| Each classroom will hold at least two parent nights where students can share work, projects, and successes. |
| Create, disperse, collect and use parent choices on content for family nights. |
| Organize and hold focused monthly parent nights. |
| Be a part of and support our PTSO. |
| Strengthen and provide additional club opportunities for our students. |

Progress Toward 2016-2017 Goals

1. School administrators and/or PTSO leadership will make classroom visits at least 2 days prior to parent nights to inform students about what is planned and get them excited about it.

Nevada Connections Academy

Strengths
- The Parent Satisfaction survey gives the school feedback on parents' levels of satisfaction with the school. Parent satisfaction with the frequency and types of events and practices shows that well over 95% of parents are satisfied. Overall, the school is doing very well with parent involvement engagement on an aggregate level. Parents are satisfied with interactions with children’s teachers and with the responsiveness from the school.
- Parents feel that they have a voice in the school and enjoy opportunities to interact with one another.
- Parents have also responded well to the additional learning opportunities to increase effectiveness as learning coaches, and to the additional face to face opportunities provided for them and their students.
- The additional support from the Family Outreach Coordinator was well received. Families felt that they could reach out to ask questions and were well informed by our Family Outreach Coordinator in regards to school events.
- Webmails were sent out when new events occurred and our Family Outreach Coordinator was visible at most of these events. He socialized with families and often completed tasks outside of his “job description” just so families felt supported.

Areas for Improvement
- Learning Coach (parent/family) support and training was increased during the 2015-16 and 2016-17 school years as outlined previously. For the 2017-2018 school year, focus will continue to be placed on family engagement.
- Teachers are looking to add face-to-face sessions, as well as virtual, for families to attend to receive additional training and assistance. Families can bring questions and/or concerns to these sessions and receive focused support.

2017-2018 Goals
- The school has a goal of 95% parent satisfaction on the parent survey as it pertains to areas that are in the school’s control.
- The school will increase attendance at face to face events by 20%.
- The school will increase the number of face to face events in locations other than Reno and Las Vegas by 20%.
- The school will create and implement parental engagement and learning sessions during all major testing windows and will communicate them to 100% of affected parents.

Progress Toward 2016-2017 Goals
1. The school has a goal of 100% parent satisfaction on the parent survey as it pertains to areas that are in the school’s control.
   - Goal almost met (95%).

2. The school will increase attendance at face to face events by 20%.
   - Progress toward goal: will work towards meeting this goal in the 2017-2018 school year.

3. The school will increase the number of face to face events in locations other than Reno and Las Vegas by 20%.

Nevada State High School

Strengths

- The school has continued its high parental activity at the school by logging and documenting parent participation and attendance at school functions and meetings.

Areas for Improvement

- New administration did not hold the school’s traditional PiP or Parents in Partnership meetings where seasoned parents hold support sessions for other parents. This new administration no longer work at the school and the new ones will clearly know this expectation.

2017-2018 Goals

- Ensure that new administration institute the school’s traditional PiP meetings and hold them accountable to outreach.

Even though the school has continued to document parent outreach, document acknowledgement, and participation, some parents are still stating the school is not communicating. When this occurs, the school collects the multiple methods of communication and parent signatures indicating they were informed to present to the parent. This appears to be creating more defensiveness with some parents as they have just been inadvertently told they are wrong, and they are the ones disengaged. The school is not in opposition to allow for false accusations, but is willing to hear suggestions for how to better “educate” parents at the beginning of the year that would decrease these accusations on the back end.

- Maintain the high level of parental activity at the school.

Progress Toward 2016-2017 Goals

1. NSHS will conduct a minimum of two (2) Parent in Partnership (PIP) meetings per semester to improve communication and input from parents/guardians.
   - Progress toward goal: will work towards meeting this goal in the 2017-2018 school year.

| • We encourage family involvement both in the classroom, and through organized school events throughout the year. | • Communication – providing parents with opportunities to acquire information, knowledge, and skills to better support their child’s education in a more timely fashion.
  o Teacher’s weekly newsletters.
  o Updating school’s website regularly.
  o Updating school’s Facebook page regularly.
  o Keeping the school bulletin board updated.
  o Use Infinite Campus for individual class and school-wide updates.
  o School-wide Newsletter sent at least quarterly via email and/or Infinite Campus. | • Plan on continuing with the same wide variety of events and activities and adding worthwhile new activities, such as the Geography Bee, to meet the various needs and likes of our school community. |
| • One of our strengths is the quantity and variety of events we have each year. | • Continue to provide two powerful, hands-on Montessori workshops with depth and understanding for our families. | • The administration, staff, and PTO also plan on working more closely as a unit with planning, preparing, and participating for each event. |
| • Another of our strengths in community involvement can be seen in our larger events such as the Harvest Festival, Winter Festival, and International Children’s Day. The entire school participates at these events, and these events have always been successful because staff, students, and families have been involved. The Harvest Festival and the Winter Festival are also fundraisers, and each year the combined total they bring in to the school is approximately $14,000 each year. | | |
| • Have added 2 Montessori Parent Education Nights to our events calendar. | | |

Strengths

Family support mentor program (described above), the primary focus being to regularly and continuously work with families to ensure the student’s educational success. Since the inception of this program towards the beginning of this year, we have seen a 20% increase in student course pass rates and a doubling of the amount of days students attend our on-site campus.

Areas for Improvement

Though parents report favorably on our approach and degree of family engagement, we see areas that we can improve in. Anecdotally, it has been observed that many of our parents/guardians don’t have an adequate understanding of how to use the technology that is vital to their students’ educational progress. We would like our families to have a clearer understanding and stronger appreciation of our school policies and procedures.

2017-2018 Goals

To help parents/guardians better understand how to use the necessary technology, develop and implement a curriculum to facilitate regular technology nights. These technology nights will be available to all families and be required of all newly enrolled students and their parents/guardians. Technology nights will be in the third week of each term.

- High degree of accessibility that families have to our staff. This comes from a low student/teacher ratio, continuous access to their online LMS, time allocated for teachers to communicate, and the encouragement for parents and guardians to take part in school planning. These approaches, amongst other things, have led to parents reporting favorably on our degree of family engagement. In our latest stakeholder feedback diagnostic, the majority of parents agreed that our school successfully engages families in multiple measures.

- We’d like to increase the level of accountability in place for student progress and attendance. We feel that increased accountability will help some families be more motivated to engage with our school’s policies and procedures.

- Beginning next year, we will require all mentors to update their family engagement logs on a weekly basis. For any student that is not passing one or more courses, the mentor must communicate with the family to explore what greater supports may be needed to increase the student’s success. All parents will be contacted at least twice during the term by the mentor to report on general attendance and academic progress. Mentors will also be sending home paper copies of progress reports, which will be translated into other languages that may be spoken in the home, as necessary.

- a need to strengthen our mentor program (see above) to make sure parent conferences/communications are happening more to the degree necessary.

- Providing them more opportunities to take part in school functions, planning, and development.

- We see increasing family accountability as vital to increasing student success and family engagement. We, therefore, will restructure our policies and procedures in place to establish adequate attendance and ensure that every student is receiving the supports they need to be successful.

- To help families better understand our policies and procedures, we will also develop and implement a curriculum for an orientation program. This curriculum will be focused on policies and procedures, reaching graduation, state-mandated testing requirements, the Family Support Mentor Program, benefits of Online Education, the Learning Management System, and our college preparatory program.
