Native Youth Community Project (NYCP) Summer Camp
Location: 4H Camp, Lake Tahoe
August 14 – 17, 2019

Student Camp Information Sheet

Students are invited to explore the University of Nevada’s 4H Camp, located on 32 acres of beautiful South Lake Tahoe. Camp will be held from August 14th through 17th, 2019. Students will enjoy a camp experience with peers their same age, all enjoying cultural, educational, environmental, traditional arts and crafts and the beauty of Lake Tahoe. This event will be paid for using funds from the Federal NYCP Grant award.

Native American youth entering 7 – 12th grades, during the 2019-20 school years will be attending. There will be separate male and female cabin areas. Students will be randomly pre-assigned to cabins based on gender and on the first day of camp, will be provided with a colored wrist band to determine which cabin they are assigned to. Chaperones will be assigned a group of youth participants and serve as their cabin leader during the entire time of the camp.

Registration is available online, or paper versions are available at your education department, or you can contact Fredina Drye-Romero at the Nevada Department of Education at (775) 687-9143.
