Turnaround Designation

What is NRS 388G.400?

- Allows for school leadership to be granted certain autonomies:
 - Hiring- includes retaining or removing current personnel
 - Curriculum- both primary and supplementary
 - Schedules – both school year and school day
 - Instructional design and practices

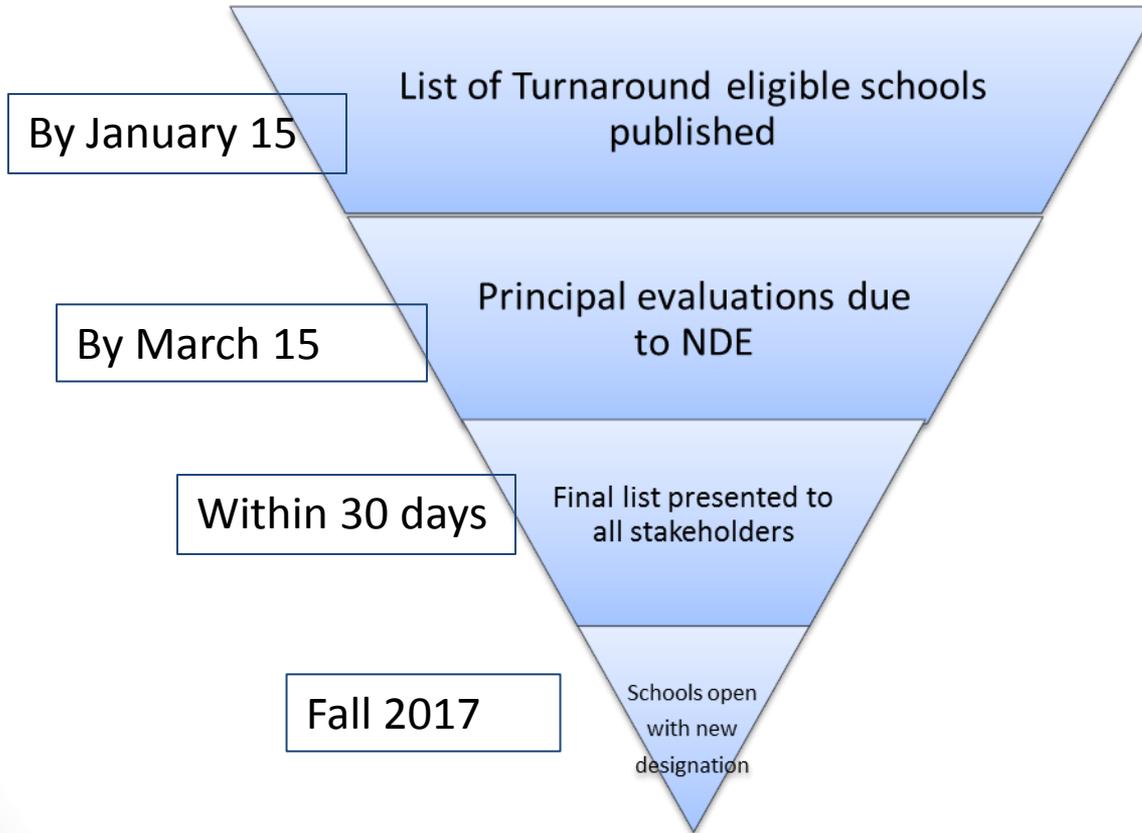

Who is Eligible?

- Any school eligible for ASD (but not selected)
- Requests may also be submitted by:
 - Board of Trustees of the District
 - District Superintendent
 - School Principal

Determining Designation

- Using an approved evaluation tool:
 - SEA requests a 3rd party or the district to complete a leadership evaluation
- If the principal has the ability to provide turnaround leadership with or without supports, school is designated

Timeline

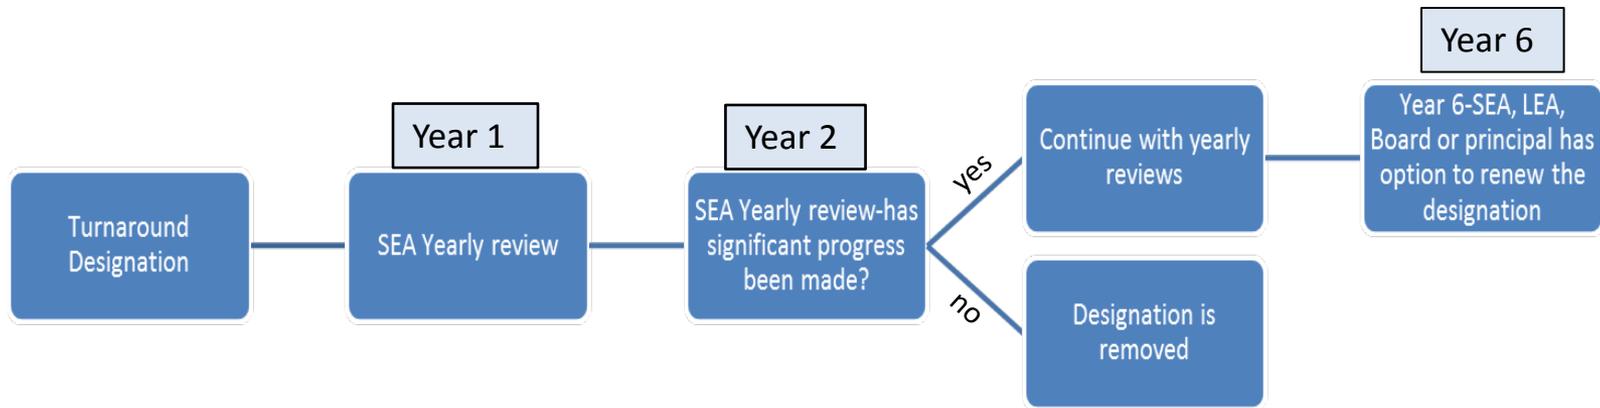

- Elementary and Middle Schools rated in the lowest 5% on NSFP
- High Schools with a graduation rate of less than 60%
- NDE designated Underperforming Schools
- Input from local boards, districts and principals

- Principal leadership capacity
- Existing district and school level initiatives

- NDE recommendations
- District recommendations

Turnaround Review

If at any time the principal leaves the school, the designation is removed. The new school can be eligible if it meets Turnaround criteria.
